Open Burning Registration Applications On-line

---

This Open Burning Registration cannot be transferred or conveyed to any other individual or property location.

If you have an existing Open Burning Registration number you do not need to re-apply. Proceed to the Open Burning Log In page and enter your existing number.

The Open Burning Registration holder is required to contact proper authority for burn day information and logging of burns.

The issued Open Burning Registration is subject to revocation by the code official due to non-compliance of the codes regulated by the Open Burning Registration holder.

Bonfire	One Time / Recreational	$0.00
Private (Annual for Individual)	Use on private property	$0.00
Agriculture (Silvaculture)	Crop Residual	$0.00
Commercial (per project)	< 20 acres	$0.00
Commercial (per project)	> 20 acres	$0.00

Note: Commercial operators must file follow TCEQ guidelines when in Denton County. The website is: https://www.tceq.texas.gov/permitting/air/permitbyrule/subchapter-v/air\_curtain.html

Denton County does ask that the burn operators do comply with our official No Burn Day rulings as well as report their activities with our office on a daily basis while the burn is active.

The authority to conduct outdoor burning under this regulation does not exempt or excuse any person responsible from the consequences, damages, or injuries resulting from the burning and does not exempt or excuse anyone from complying with all other applicable laws or ordinances, regulations, and orders of governmental entities having jurisdiction, even though the burning is otherwise conducted in compliance with this regulation.

Applicant verifies that he/she has read this document in the capacity designated, if any, and further attests that he/she will comply with the application, rules and regulations and understands its meaning.

Applicant agrees to above and agrees to print a copy of the rules and regulations for open burning.

Unless a confirmation page has been acknowledged the Open Burning Registration application has not been accepted and is not valid. If a confirmation page failed you will need to contact our office to obtain an Open Burning Registration Number. The office hours are Monday – Friday from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm. See above for the office address and contact phone numbers.
